Every morning, tim
cat brushes his two tiny teeth.

And every morning,
tom cat counts
his feet. "One, two,
three..."

"...four, five, six, seven, eight, nine... Hey! Where is foot number ten?"

tim cat points.

“Silly cat. Your foot
is under you.”

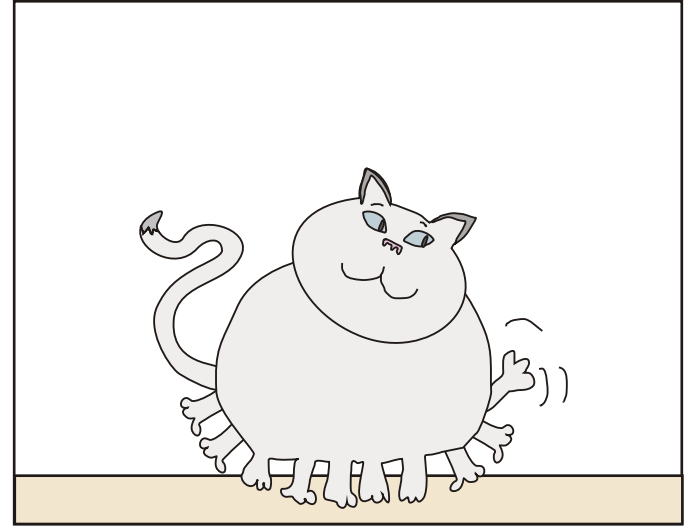

“Yes, yes,” says tom.

“I know my foot is wonderful. I just want to know where it is!”

"I did not say your foot is wonderful," says
tim. "I said your foot
is under you."

"Oh, there it is," says
tom. "Ha, ha. I sat on my foot."

tim cat points
again. "You also sat
on your hat."

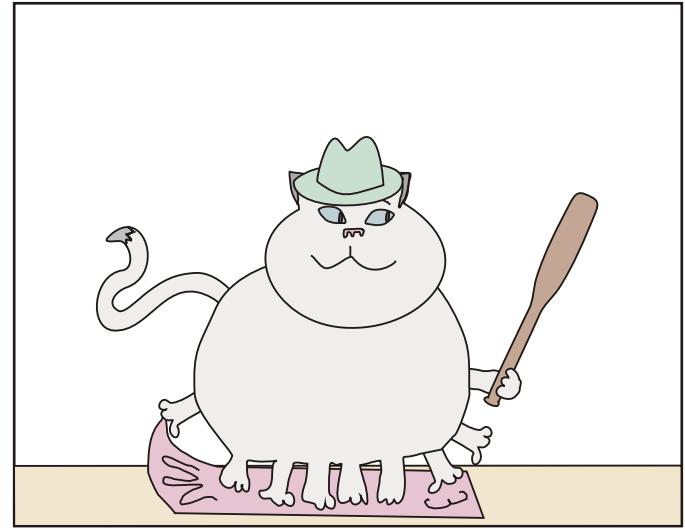

"Oops," says tom.
"Silly me. tom
cat sat on his hat."

“Oh, look!” says tim.

“Look what else you
sat on.”

tom looks down.

“Ha, ha, silly me. I
sat on a hat,
a mat and a bat.”

tom looks again.

“And that is not all.

I think I also sat

on a ball.”

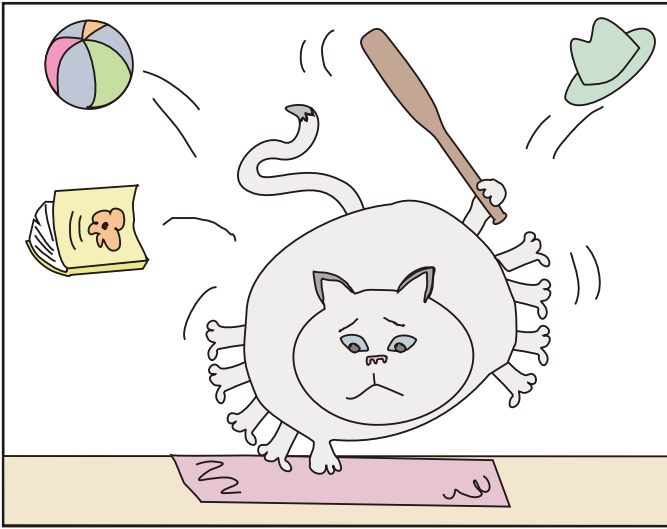

tom laughs. “I

sat on a hat,

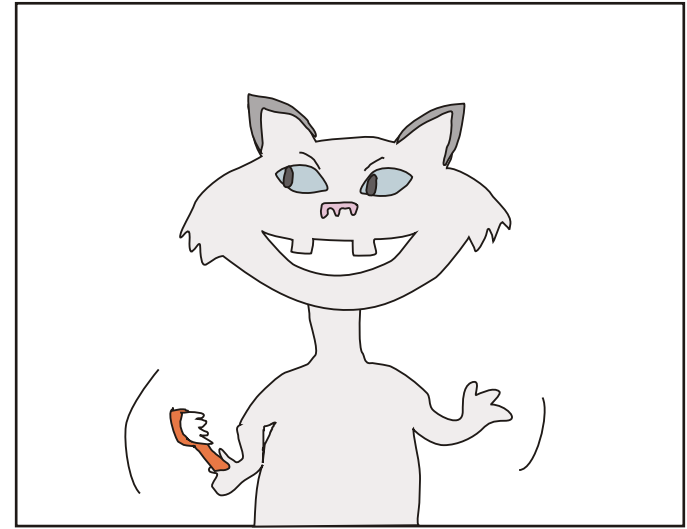

a bat and a mat...

a book, a ball and that is not all...”

"I think I also sat
on a mouse. Eeeek!
A mouse in my house!"

"Silly cat," says tim.
"That is not a mouse.
That is just one of your feet."

"I knew that," says

tom. "Ha, ha. Silly

me. I sat on my foot again."

tom rubs his tummy.

"You know something?"

"Sitting on all that stuff made me hungry."

"Me too," says tim.

"Let's eat."
